

STAGECOACH THEATRE SCHOOL

TUITION POLICY – Please Read and Sign

If a family decides to withdraw from a class they are registered in, they must do so by October 16th, 2014 to avoid financial penalty. The $30 admin fee and cost of pro-rated classes are non-refundable.

If the student withdraws from class after October 16th, 2015 tuition fees will NOT be refunded.

Signing below confirms that you have read and understand this policy.

Name of parent or guardian (Print)

Signature:

Date:

StageCoach tuitions are now considered for a tax receipt up to $500 per child per year. In what name would you like the tuition receipt to be in?

Are you able to Volunteer?

As a non-profit society, StageCoach Theatre School keeps it's costs for students and families as low as possible, and one way we sustain this is by relying on families to fundraise and help with our annual production.

Please let us know what you would be interested in helping with:

Fundraising Events

Baking and Food Concession

Costume Design

Advertising

Set Design and Construction

Props Design and Construction

Theatre Makeup and Dressing

Theatre Move-In & Strike (truck needed)

Event Planning and Set Up

Anything Else!

Please return this completed form and tuitions payments in a sealed envelope to the StageCoach Theatre School drop-box at either Salt Spring Books (7 days a week 9-5) or ArtSpring (Mon-Fri 10-4). Or call 250.538.7494 to make other arrangements.